

The Framework for Nuclear Reform Monitoring and Role of Members

- The Nuclear Safety Reform Plan shifts to execution phase from planning phase
- The Committee will monitor the progress of the Nuclear Safety Reform Plan and the status of decommission of Fukushima-Daiichi Plants

Framework for Monitoring

Role of Members

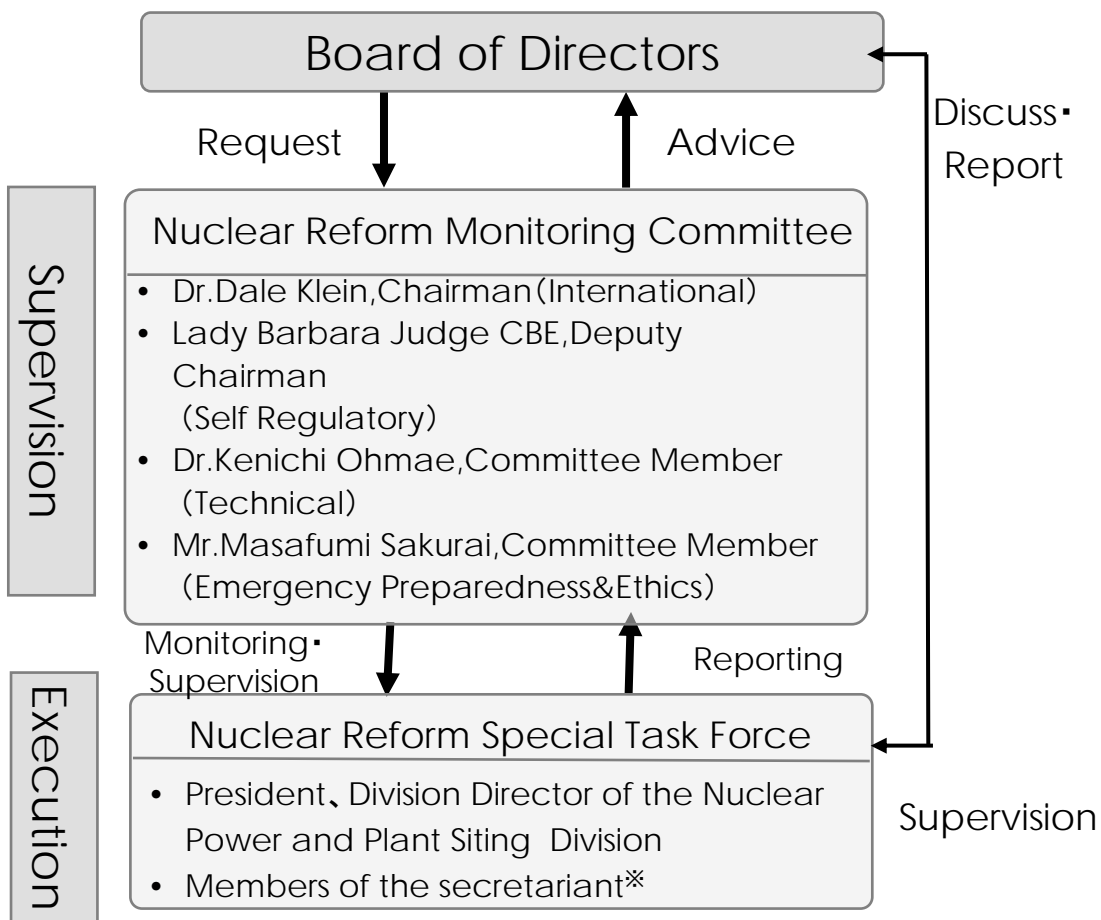

Member	Role
Dr.Dale Klein,Chairman	General, International, Decommission
Lady Barbara Judge CBE, Deputy Chairman	Self Regulatory (Nuclear Safety Oversight Office) ,Social Communication &Public Outreach
Mr.Masafumi Sakurai, Committee Member	Emergency Preparedness & Ethics, Risk Communication
Dr.Kenichi Ohmae, Committee Member	Technical

※ The investigation/ verification Project Team conduct the investigation/ verification based on the request from the Committee as before, in case of the major problem that should be investigated /verified such as new fact emerging .

(Appendix) Framework so far

- Monitor and Supervise the planning of “Reassessment of Fukushima Nuclear Accident and Nuclear Safety Reform Plan” by set the Subcommittee Meetings to make the plan more concrete by utilizing the expertise of each committee member

Framework for Monitoring

- 12 Oct. 2012 The First Nuclear Reform Monitoring Committee Meeting
 - ➔ discuss 「Fundamental Policy for the Reform of TEPCO Nuclear power Organization」
- 14 Dec. 2012 The Second Nuclear Reform Monitoring Committee Meeting
 - ➔ discuss「Nuclear Safety Reform Plan (interim report)」
- 29 Mar. 2013 The Third Nuclear Reform Monitoring Committee Meeting
 - ➔ discuss「Nuclear Safety Reform Plan (final report)」

Released on 29 Mar.2013 through advice to the board of directors from the committee and decision by the board

* Internal: Mid-career and younger employees from Nuclear Power Division and others(12 people)、 External: Experts